The filles had their innings at Morris Park yesterday. They captured three events with ridiculous case. Falry won the opening dash The beach is strewn what tensels that are have appeared that Garrison was remained in presumed, came protect to have been wrocked on scruby it was only a bluff, however. Helen Nichols and. Yorkville Belle had practically a walk-over, having only Derfargilla and Anna B. to defeat, and she could task early enough. Garrison rode Fairy and Yorkville Bette. This was a great surprise to many, for, after the complaint which the Ehret people made against the lockey for not riding Vairy a sew days ago every one supposed that it was all ove, between the "snapper" and the brewer. Yesterday, however, the pine of maney was smoked and the ever, the pipe of ponce was smoked, and Gar-rison consented to ride after his $250 one had been paid. The Ehret stable is certainly the queerest aggregation seen in many moons, but it must be confessed that they are get-ting a big slice of the money.

The performance of Ajax yesterday shows that Bergen can get more speed out of that erratte colt than the mighty "Snapper." Gov. Foraker beat Ajax both times that Garrison rode the celt. Yesterday Ajax, under Bergen's guidance, beat Gov. Foraker handily.

gen's guidance, beat Gov. Foraker handly, ily Dy's performance yesterday needs investigation. A few days ago he beat Mitt Young and Cynesure in very handy rashion. Yesterday, though the dintance was the same and ily by had four pounds off from his last race, the two horses named above finished in front of him. Perhaps the tact that he was a favor, to yesterday had a great deal to do with his defeat. At any rate, your gliddige can ride the gelding better than Covington, and it is strange that the former was not given the mount. Covington's riding is not of the kind to inspire confidence.
